PURE AND SIMPLE

PETRA DANNENMANN
BALANCES STYLE
AND COMPASSION.

In Kenya, a few hours' drive from Nairobi, German designer Petra Dannenmann and her husband, Uli, built an orphanage to provide children with shelter and education. Across the Atlantic, right here in Aspen, the couple is sponsoring a homeless shelter—and debuting their first stateside boutique. Dannenmann Pure, a collection that focuses on the value of well-made outerwear and apparel, is based on the principle of purity. Crafted with organic, 100-percent boiled wool, Dannenmann Pure's pieces utilize durable, natural, breathable fabrics that offer comfort and protection while still looking oh-so pretty. *525 E.
